The 2017 Open Source Survey is open

2017-04-18 15:02

We are again collaborators of the Open Source Survey.

The 2017 Open Source 360° survey is being conducted through Black Duck's Center for Open Source Research & Innovation (COSRI) and will focus on four important areas of open source – usage, risk, contributions and governance/policies.

Participating takes only a couple of minutes, please use this link to Share your #opensource perspective now:
